

MISS HESTER BROWN IN THE SOUTH.

In a letter received this week from Louisville, the information is received that Miss Hester O. Brown, the noted violinist, who spent a few weeks in Nashville last winter, has again come as far south as Louisville. She will appear at the Fifth Street Baptist Church of Louisville, in a concert on Monday night, November 4. Rev. Dr. Frank is the pastor of the church. Miss Brown is quite a favorite not only with the church, but with the two Baptist schools in the vicinity of Louisville. After the recital Miss Brown will go to Pasadena, Cal., to spend the winter, as she recently closed the season with the Olympia Quartet, after traveling all summer.

Mr. Carey B. Lewis, of Louisville, the young ambitious newspaper man, will take care of the newspaper part of the concert, and will then leave for Nashville, where he expects to witness the football game between the St. Louis High School and the Pearl High School.

Mr. Jas. H. Brown, wife and daughter attended the meeting at his church in Murfreesboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Perry are expecting to return from Hot Springs, Ark., soon.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

At the beginning of the morning services at Fifth Ward Baptist Church last Sunday, there was only one cross present, not the emblematic sign of Calvary's suffering, but a real human cross; but at the close of the exercises there were two. During the singing of the old familiar "Bless be the tie," a stately woman in the person of Mrs. Eugenia Cullum calmly arose and presented herself at the altar for admission into the fellowship of the church, and through motion and vote was duly accepted. Then the Rev. L. W. Cross, also a member of the church, was presently at her side and presented to the pastor a marriage license, requesting him to say the ceremony making them man and wife. The surprised pastor was equal to the occasion and in his happy vein pronounced Rev. L. W. Cross and Mrs. Eugenia Cullum husband and wife.

Mrs. Lady D. Luckett, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her cousin, Mr. N. S. Dabney, this week.

COMMUNION SETS.

VESSELS WITH WHICH TO ADMINISTER THE LORD'S SUPPER.

THE most sacred ordinance that can be observed by all churches is that known as the Lord's Supper or, in other words, Sacrament. We do not think it is in keeping with these sacred ordinances of the Lord's Supper in church now-a-days to try to administer it with out the proper vessels.

Every Church Ought to Have a First-Class Communion Set.

They can have them made out of the best grade of quadruple-plated table silverware if they desire them. The Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board has just received from their factory a new lot of this high-class ware, and would take pains in showing them to any one.

The Prices are Within Reach of All and Terms are Reasonable.

No church ought to be willing to use glass dishes or the like for these ordinances when they can have the best grade of silver at moderate prices.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Keeling are still on the sick list.

Quite an enjoyable day was spent through the efforts of the teacher of our school, Mr. Ed. Buford, last Friday. A prize was offered to the one making the highest mark in all studies of the primary class. The prize was awarded to little Price Brown Perry, who made 100 in spelling and 50 in arithmetic. The prize offered was a nice pair of pants.

Mr. Buford is doing great work here in the school line.

SPRING HILL NOTES.

We have a very quiet town; there is peace between the two races which is not true of every town.

Miss Annie Campbell and Mrs. Mary Bond, of Mount Zion, visited the Teachers' Reading Circle last Saturday at Columbia.

Mrs. M. L. Byers visited Misses Mary and Lizzie Bradshaw at Columbia last Saturday.

Miss Eddy Slayden has been visiting her cousin, Miss Irene E. Peters, for the last two weeks.

Rev. Mr. Nelson, of Murfreesboro, addressed the Spring Hill public schools last Friday.

There has been a series of meetings at the M. E. Church for the last week. The result of which was two additions to the church.

The Rev. Mr. Etterly, the presiding elder of the West Nashville District, held his first quarterly conference here last Sunday.

Several of the Spring Hillians went to Nashville to see the President last week, the 22nd of October, but failed to see him on account of the train being late.

Mr. Charles Grigsby and mother visited Rural Hill last Wednesday.

Master Ope Stephenson, who has been in Nashville for several months, has returned to his father, Prof. J. W. Stephenson.

The farmers are quite busy in the neighborhood gathering corn and sowing wheat.

Mr. Robert Jenkins and Miss Mary McCullough were married last Sunday evening. We are in hopes that they may live useful lives.

We want every man in our town to read the Globe and pay for it.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

The Birmingham Presbytery held its fall session with the Salem Presbyterian Church, near Ashwood, Maury County, Tenn., October 17-20. It was an interesting and profitable meeting.

Such bodies meeting in this section of the country, where Presbyterianism is not so well understood, serves to advance the cause in a very substantial way.

Mrs. Stewart, of Pittsburg, Pa., will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Phoebe J. Armstrong, of East Tenth street.

Mr. Andrew Sanderson, of Columbia, Ohio, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Easter Sanderson, of Tenth street.

Revs. Peterson and Davis, delegates to Birmingham Presbytery, visited the Columbia Public School last week and made very interesting addresses to the children.

Miss Lizzie Bradshaw, who teaches at Gravel Hill, was on account of illness unable to teach last Friday.

Mesdames Byers and Barnes, of Springhill, were in town Saturday the guests of Miss M. E. Bradshaw.

Bishop E. Tyree visited here last week, the guest of Rev. S. L. Howard, pastor of St. Paul Church. The Bishop's friends on College Hill were sadly disappointed at not getting a glimpse on this occasion of our "Own Bishop Tyree."

Mr. Charley Kelly was in Nashville Tuesday to see the President.

Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church celebrated its sixty-fourth anniversary, October 28th. Rev. Mr. gramme throughout the day Sunday, October 20th.

Dr. Hunter has returned from Indian Territory, where he visited his parents.

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Hampton will celebrate their twentieth marriage anniversary October 28th. Rev. Mr. Hampton is pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church and is very popular in the community, and no doubt the china wedding will be largely attended.

Rev. Dr. Clark, of Birmingham, preached at St. Paul A. M. E. Church, October 20th.

Mrs. Morgan Parker and Mrs. Elsie Goodloe were quietly married on Oct. 16th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rutha Bunch, on Hill street.
